Christmas Suggestions

$9.75 buys a solid oak Princess Dresser, and $16.85 buys a genuine mahogany veneered scroll Colonial design—very plain, but looks like it's worth 3 times as much.

More and more every year the custom of giving practical and useful presents grows. A piece of Furniture such as we show carries the remembrance of the giver many long years afterwards. The best gifts are both beautiful and useful, and the value of a gift lies not in its cost, but in how much it expresses your regard.

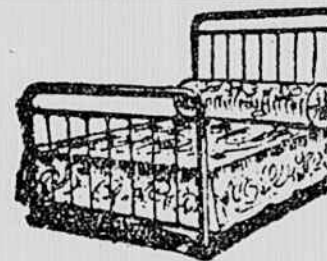

All cash discounts on goods bought in the month of December can be taken off February 1, 1914.

$13.75 for Royal quartered oak Colonial scroll Buffet, far better looking than the cut. We show over 150 other patterns of Sideboards, in fumed oak, Early English and solid mahogany, up as high as $250.00.

$5.85 to $100.00, and a hundred designs to pick from; that's the story about our Dining Tables. Table like cut $14.85.

This newspaper cut fairly truthfully could represent a $5.00 Iron Bed or a $10.00 Brass Bed, but we call your particular attention to our Iron Bed at $4.75, and Brass Bed at $23.00, which include National Springs that look exactly like the cut. We show 125 different patterns of Brass and Iron Beds from $4.85 to $125.00, all including National Springs.

$5.49 for this $9.00 Mission Library Table. It's a beauty and perfectly solid and substantial; size of top is 24 inches by 42 inches long.

$12.00 to $85.00 For 1, 2 and 3-Section Book Cases in oak and mahogany. A beautiful line to select from.

$100.00 A masterpiece of furniture design and workmanship. One of Berkeley & Gays best; the replica of a 200-year-old antique; a perfect gem; cut out of the choicest mahogany; worth $150.00 easily; 41 inches wide and 87 inches high.

$29.00 Exactly like cut, dull mahogany finish, 20 inches wide and 6 feet 6 inches tall; has bevel plate glass door. This Grandfather's Clock, though low in price, is strictly high grade. Has imported weight movement, chain wind and strikes the half hours on a large cathedral gong. This clock would delightfully surprise any woman. We have other standing Hall Clocks from $4.50 to $400 each.

$24.00 to $50.00 we show 50 different Chairs and Rockers, upholstered in denim, tapestry and leather; very much like these five. Chairs are suitable for any purpose—living, dressing or bedroom or parlor, or even the hall. No matter how crowded with furniture her home might be, any woman would be more than delighted to receive one of these handsome and comfortable chairs.

150 Different Designs

of Solid Mahogany Tables, Trays, Wagons, etc., etc., in furniture novelties of the very best manufacture. These goods, in addition to the swell furniture stores up North, are handled by the leading jewelers, such as Bailey, Banks & Biddle, Tiffany, etc. We sell them for less than they do. The possession of one of these pieces denotes the highest appreciation of the furniture makers art, and the cost is small—$5.00 to $85.00. To say the least, any person of good taste and refinement would be more than delighted to receive one of these pieces.

$45.00 Choicest Mahogany Frame and handsomest imported green velvet covering. ## OUR BANKING PLAN

Thousands of our citizens of good taste like nice things for the home, but often it's inconvenient to pay all cash right down, or even in a couple of months. In that case we offer you our banking plan, which gives you five, ten or even fifteen months in which to pay—you don't know you're actually paying. Ask about it and try it!

And don't forget that we allow cash discounts on goods purchased in December on February 1, 1914.
